Incident Case #:

Summary: The Bristol Police Department has been made aware of a number of thefts of snow plows that have occurred in the region. The thefts occur while the plows have been disconnected from the plow vehicle and an unknown person(s) are driving up to the plow, connecting to it, and driving away. The BPD has received one recent report of such a theft (December 2014)

This information is being provided to make Bristol snow plow owners aware of a trend identified in the region so they can take appropriate measures to protect their property.
